Subject: Final Response - LGOIMA 261131 - [REDACTED] - Cost of enforcing vaccine mandate across the organisation

Kia Ora,

I refer to your information request below, Hamilton City Council is able to provide the following response.

Your request:

How much money has the city council spent on enforcing the vaccine passports discriminatory mandates that they decided to apply and have only recently reversed. The costs are to include, but not be limited by, labour costs or contract costs, advertising and printing .

Our Response:

Council has spent the following amounts enforcing the vaccination passes:

1. My Vaccine Pass – design for social media and posters + printing for all Council facilities: $916
2. COVID-19 Staff Vaccination Proposal – design of consultation documents - $475
3. Checking vaccination passes and security costs at our public facilities - $526,334
4. Legal costs associated with employment processes for unvaccinated employees - $39,487
5. Costs of advertising roles vacated by unvaccinated employees - $3,308.11

Total: $570,520.11

Please note – Hamilton City Council did not record the time spent by staff on enforcing the vaccination passes. Therefore, this aspect of your request is being refused as per S 17(e) of LGOIMA – this information does not exist.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.
